BOXING.

There will be a good preliminary to the Kennedy-McNabb contest at the Metropolitan club next Monday evening. The participants will be Buzz Auber, of this city, and Frank Salisbury, of East Liverpool, who were matched last summer, but Auber's injured hand prevented him from appearing. Charles Kurtz took Salisbury's place on that occasion, but he was outwitted.

It is Chick Brooker that will figure in the preliminary with Hugh Glancey, of the South Side, and not Dick Crocker, as a confusion of the types made it appear. Brooker is a Cincinnati bantam who has been following the ring for some years.

Charley Burns, of Cincinnati, the Beau Brummel of the ring, it is rumored will grace Wheeling with his presence once more. It is said he will accompany Joe Brunner and Chick Brooker to Wheeling, for the Brunner-Auber go at the Drovers' Home, next Saturday evening.

Ended in a Draw.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—The fight at the Coney Island Athletic Club, to-night between Frank Ernie and Jack O'Brien, to-night, resulted in a draw after going the limit, twenty-five rounds. The fight was fast and furious, and in the earlier rounds O'Brien had much the better of it. O'Brien did a lot of forcing and fighting, but Ernie's work was of a cleaner and more scientific character. O'Brien's blows fell with a force that was not behind Ernie's. It was the old case of a clean boxer against a hurrican fighter. Of the two O'Brien's face bore the worse marks. Both his eyes were badly damaged and his mouth and nose puffed up. Ernie's left eye was smashed, but this will not hurt him half as much as the punishment he received in the body during the mill. O'Brien invariably got in pile driving blows on the stomach, ribs and kidneys, and the frequent visitations of his fists left red welts on the Buffalo lad's body.

Young Rader's Challenge.

Young Rader, the local boxer, is willing to meet any featherweight in the state for the championship of West Virginia, and also issues a challenge to meet the winner of the Auber-Brunner fight, which takes place at the Drovers' Home Club, December 9. Anybody accepting this challenge, can do so through this paper.

A Carroll Club Team.

Several members of the Carroll Club are advocating a Carroll Club football team for next season, and it is possible they may take the field. The club was represented on the diamond one season by a good team. There is considerable talent in the large membership, if it can be brought out. Joe O'Brien, Will and Jim Handlan and other Carroll Club boys know the game well. It is rather premature to discuss the finer details now, but the Carroll Club would cut a figure if it entered the arena.

AMUSEMENTS.

When Jim Jeffries and "Sailor" Sharkey fought their memorable battle at Coney Island Athletic Club, for the pugilistic championship of the world, every movement of the principals and officials, every blow exchanged was being recorded on the film of the kinetoscope, the crowning achievement of the inventive genius of the nineteenth century. Thus it was made possible to reproduce the fight with life-like accuracy, for the benefit of the thousands of lovers of the boxing game throughout the country, who, from choice or necessity, were unable to be present at

FIGHT

There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing. It makes your throat raw and irritable. Every cough congests the lining membrane of your lungs. Cease coughing the throat and lungs in this way. Cease fighting consumption all the time. Put your throat and lungs at rest and give them a chance to heal. You will need some help to do this, and you will find it in

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

If it's a cold you've just taken, a 25c. bottle will cure it; if you've had it some time, the 50c. size is better; you get more for your money if you buy the dollar size.

"I caught a very severe cold that settled on my lungs. After a time I began spitting up blood. I could get no relief anywhere. At last I bought a bottle of Cherry Pectoral and after taking two bottles I was completely cured." C. COFFEY, Jan. 7, 1899. San Francisco, Cal.

the ringside. The opportunity is also afforded to the ladies to see an exact reproduction of the fight, devoid of the brutal features. Everybody will be interested, therefore, in the announcement that Manager Charles A. Feinler has secured the kinetoscope fight pictures for patrons of the Opera House, and they will be given in their entirety at that theatre, on Wednesday and Thursday nights.

"Other People's Money."

"Other People's Money," with Hennessee Leroy as the central figure, is announced as the attraction at the Opera House, next Monday evening, December 11. The play is a bright comedy, full of material that results in laughter. Its complications are numerous and well worked out and throughout the entire 150 minutes required in telling the story there is not one moment that would provoke a yawn or cause an audience to grow listless. The central figure is Hutchinson Hopper, a character which the author has endowed with interest and made a very human combination of conceit, cunning, vanity, avarice, ambition and humility and in the portrayal of the different phases of this character, Mr. Leroy is most happy in showing wherein he has carefully studied his art.

Chester De Vonde.

Unquestionably the best of the repertoire companies which have visited Wheeling this season is the Chester De Vonde Stock Company, which opened a week's engagement at the Grand Opera House last night. It is a company of capable actors and actresses, under management which is intelligent and artistic. "Ten Ten Door," a new melodrama, was presented for the opening bill. It was splendidly mounted, with special scenery, and with the exception of an unavoidable accident on the stage the production was really excellent. This afternoon the company will present "Crimes of a Great City," and to-night "A Ranch Hero," a new border drama.

BENWOOD.

News Notes From the Busy Marshall County Town.

The Methodist Episcopal church fair was brought to a successful close last night. Several of the contests were decided, but that between George Addiesberger and Mr. Lowe was deferred until the evening of December 27, when there is to be a final entertainment. In line with the bazaar, the profits have not been estimated yet, but it is believed the balance will net the neat figure of $2,000. This estimate may be high, but it is said to be near the mark.

Marshal Purbee will post notices to delinquent taxpayers in a few days, at the mills, stating that if the bills are not paid before January 1, they will be collected through the mill offices. There are many bills owing for 1898, besides this year. The city treasury is low and council has ordered the marshal to stir up the delinquents. It is said the mills can be called on to assist in tax collections from their employees, according to a legal enactment.

The funeral of Tim Gately, who died Saturday evening, took place yesterday from the home of his father, Michael Gately, at the interment was at Mt. Calvary cemetery. The deceased, who had been in ill health for years, was a piddler.

Willie Dugan has applied to Hon. John A. Campbell, of New Cumberland, member of the board of regents, for an appointment in the cadet corps of the state university. He will enter the university next year.

A. Lorentz, the dairyman, won the furniture donated by G. Mendel & Co., and Thomas Kelly won the jewelry donated by I. G. Dillon & Co., at the Methodist Episcopal church fair Saturday night.

Now that the big bazaar is over, the men folks are declaring without much indignation, that they were robbed by the fair solicitors. The candidates got it good.

A subscription list is being circulated in the interest of the new German Lutheran church. A bazaar for this purpose will be given about February.

The condition of Dr. L. U. Wycoff continues to show improvement. He is still confined at the Glendale hospital.

BELLAIRE HAPPENINGS.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County.

The boys of the Young Men's Club have decided to have occasional debates on live topics to keep up interest during the long winter evenings. "Resolved, That we (America) have a clear title in law and morals to the Philippines," was discussed last night. Frank Rine and Ralph McNease led for the affirmative and James Boring and H. B. Taylor the negative, after which there was a general discussion. This is a good move for the club.

Mayor Preece held the greatest Monday morning matinee he has held since he became Mayor. Fifteen saloon men were charged with selling on Sunday, and he taxed them $20 and cost each, a total of $354 in all, if they all pay. This spasm of virtue is expensive to the offenders and is calculated to shut off the Sunday sales, unless it is that this was a pick-up for the holiday season.

The Catholic fair and bazaar closed last night when the awards of the pony and cart contest, the bedroom set and other valuable gifts were awarded. Father Wehrle had general charge, but James Ford was in immediate charge of the affair, and the awards were made by disinterested judges, selected from outsiders.

Yesterday's News From Marshall County's Chief City.

Rev. W. A. Williams, president of Franklin college, New Athens, left yesterday for the seat of the college to attend a meeting of its trustees, called for to-day, to provide for the erection of a new building to take the place of the one burned last week. Cadiz and other places are offering inducements to have the college removed to their city, but the people of New Athens are enthusiastic and will not likely allow it to be taken from them. One New Athens man subscribed $1,000 on Thanksgiving day.

The ladies of Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will give a supper at the W. C. T. U. hall Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. There will also be a free concert both evenings at the hall. This supper is given for the purpose of paying off an old debt which has been standing against the church for several years. The ladies have started out to make this the supper of the season, and to give two pleasant evenings of entertainment to those who will attend.
